Biblical foundation

1 Corinthians 10:14-22 - Paul commands believers to flee idolatry and reject fellowship with demons. Communion with the Lord calls for undivided spiritual allegiance.

Matthew 5:33-37 - Jesus calls His disciples to truthful speech and integrity concerning oaths. Our commitments belong under His lordship.

Colossians 1:9-14 - The Father rescues believers from the dominion of darkness and brings them into His Son's kingdom. Redemption and forgiveness lead into a life pleasing to the Lord.

Romans 12:1-2 - God's mercy calls forth the surrender of the whole person. Renewed thinking and bodily obedience express worship in daily life.

Acts 16:16-18 - A spirit of divination departed when Paul commanded it in Jesus Christ's name. Spiritual authority rests in the risen Lord.

Ephesians 4:25-32 - Paul connects refusal of the devil's opportunity with truthful speech, the handling of anger, changed conduct, and forgiveness. Renunciation must be expressed through actual obedience.

Original teaching

Your allegiance belongs to the risen Lord

Satanic oaths, covenants, pacts, and dedications express an allegiance God calls us to reject. These may involve pledges of worship, promises of obedience or secrecy, ritual invocations, written commitments, blood oaths, or a known dedication of your life to darkness. Jesus Christ calls people out of that allegiance into His kingdom. His death and resurrection establish the hope of forgiveness, deliverance, and new life.

Bring every known commitment you willingly made before Him. Confess your participation, renounce the allegiance, and surrender yourself wholly to God. The blood of Jesus cleanses repentant sinners, and His authority is greater than the powers they once served. Let your response be clear and complete: your worship belongs to Jesus.

Reject the demands of darkness

An ungodly promise cannot become the ruler of your future. Renounce your actual agreement and withdraw the sinful consent by which you cooperated with evil. Refuse demands to return to satanic worship, carry out harm, conceal wrongdoing, or renew an occult commitment. Command spiritual oppression connected to those agreements to depart in Jesus Christ's name.

Where another person has claimed to dedicate you or place you under an evil power, affirm your allegiance to Jesus and ask for His protection. Another person's act does not make that person the owner of a believer. Christ is Lord over those who belong to Him. Bring your known history to God and establish your present commitment to follow Him.

Consecrate your life in action

Surrender reaches beyond words. End ongoing participation, leave ritual obligations, remove your own practice materials, and seek fellowship with a Bible-believing church. Ask mature believers to pray with you. Learn to answer spiritual intimidation with Scripture and to answer temptation with obedience.

Honor the legitimate responsibilities that remain in your life. Faithfulness toward children, lawful obligations, and honest dealings belongs to the new life you are embracing. Where sin has harmed others, accept accountability and pursue truth. Let renunciation become the beginning of visible devotion: worship, integrity, purity, service, and perseverance in Jesus Christ.

Preparation for prayer

Prepare for deliverance

Begin with surrender to Jesus Christ, repentance, forgiveness, and a decisive break with ungodly allegiances. Use the preparation guide and personal renunciation prompts, then pray specifically about the matter before you.

Preparing for Deliverance in Jesus' Name

Personal Renunciation Guide: Beliefs, Practices & Allegiances

• Privately name the oath, pledge, pact, dedication, promise of secrecy, or ritual commitment you knowingly made.

• Identify what you promised to worship, obey, conceal, or perform, and determine to reject that wrongdoing.

• Bring known family occult allegiances you personally accepted and unholy loyalties you need to renounce before Jesus.

• Prepare to forgive people, end ongoing participation, and follow Christ; use the two preparation guides.

A complete prayer

Pray in faith, trusting Jesus Christ and the authority of His Word.

Jesus Christ, I confess that You are the Son of God, crucified for sinners and raised from the dead. I put my trust in Your saving work and surrender my life to Your lordship. I belong to You. Father, receive my repentance, forgive my willing sin, and cleanse my conscience through the blood of Jesus.

I bring before You the satanic oaths, covenants, pacts, and dedications I knowingly chose. I renounce every pledge to worship Satan, serve invoked spirits, pursue occult power, or carry out evil. I reject promises of secrecy that conceal wrongdoing, vows of obedience against Your Word, written commitments, blood oaths, and ritual dedications wherever these were part of my involvement.

I withdraw my consent from those agreements. I refuse every demand to renew them, complete their evil purposes, or remain silent about harm. I renounce the allegiance I gave through spoken words, signatures, offerings, and ceremonies. My worship belongs to the living God, and my body, mind, words, and future are surrendered to Jesus Christ.

I reject every known occult allegiance in my family and every curse connected with it. Where I personally accepted or continued those practices, I repent and renounce my participation. I reject unholy ties and loyalties that keep drawing me into the commitments I have forsaken. Where others claimed to dedicate or own me, I reject that claim and affirm the lordship of Jesus over my life. I choose to forgive those who deceived or pressured me and entrust justice to You.

In Jesus Christ's name, every demonic power seeking to enforce these renounced oaths, pacts, and dedications: I command you to leave me. I resist intimidation, deception, and the demand to return. I reject your influence through my former sinful cooperation. Jesus Christ has authority over you, and I stand submitted to Him.

Holy Spirit, fill me with Your presence and power. Strengthen me to end ongoing involvement, speak truth, and obey Scripture. Help me honor legitimate duties and accept responsibility wherever I caused harm. Establish me in faithful fellowship, prayer, worship, and service. Let my whole life declare allegiance to the Father, through His Son, in the power of the Holy Spirit. In Jesus' mighty name, amen.

A brief prayer

Jesus Christ, crucified and risen, I belong to You. Forgive my willing sin. I renounce the satanic oaths, pacts, covenants, and dedications I knowingly chose, including wrongful promises of worship, obedience, and secrecy. I withdraw my consent, forgive those who harmed me, and reject known family occult allegiances and curses, and renounce unholy ties I accepted. In Jesus' name, I command powers enforcing those agreements to leave. Holy Spirit, fill me and lead me in truth and obedience. Amen.

Walk in freedom

- End every ongoing practice or renewal associated with the commitment you renounced.
- Ask trustworthy believers to pray with you and help you stand firmly in biblical truth.
- Remove your own ritual materials responsibly and establish daily devotion to Jesus.
- Honor legitimate duties and pursue honest accountability wherever past wrongdoing affected others.
