Biblical foundation

2 Timothy 3:14-17 - Scripture leads us to salvation through faith in Jesus and equips us to live in truth. Keep the Word of God open as you read and pray.

Matthew 6:5-13 - Jesus teaches His disciples to seek the Father sincerely, surrender to His will, ask for forgiveness, and pray for deliverance from evil.

James 1:22-25 - God’s Word calls for obedience. Receive what He says and put it into practice in the choices before you.

Colossians 2:6-7 - Those who receive Jesus as Lord are called to become firmly established in Him, growing in faith and thanksgiving.

Hebrews 10:23-25 - Believers are called to hold firmly to their faith and encourage one another in love, obedience, and fellowship.

Original teaching

Bring your life before Jesus

Jesus Christ has conquered sin and death. He receives those who turn to Him, cleanses the repentant, and sets captives free. Come to Him with your whole heart. The central question is whether you will trust Him and surrender what He brings into the light. Begin there, with the Savior who died for your sins and rose to give new life.

If you are beginning to follow Jesus, open Repentance, Faith, and Surrender to Jesus. If you are facing a specific struggle, choose the resource that addresses it. Come ready to receive the truth, confess known sin, forgive, renounce ungodly involvement, and ask for the power of the Holy Spirit. Every resource points you toward Christ and a life of obedience.

Read the Word and pray with faith

Each resource contains biblical foundations, teaching, preparation, a complete prayer, a brief prayer, and practical actions. Read the Scripture passages carefully. Let their meaning govern your understanding, and let the Holy Spirit search your heart. You can open the prayer immediately and return to the teaching as you continue.

The written prayers give language to a sincere response to God. Make them personal and pray what is true. Name known sin honestly. Renounce the practices you have actually embraced. Bring your own needs before the Father with confidence in Jesus. This library's newly developed seven-part Start Here pathway offers a clear beginning; individual resources are also available whenever you need them.

Follow through in obedience

When you pray, prepare to act. Turn away from the sin you have confessed. Remove what draws you back into darkness. Honor the boundaries that protect your walk with God. Open Scripture daily, worship the Lord, and seek fellowship with believers who will help you remain faithful. Freedom should bear fruit in your conduct, relationships, and witness.

Torch of Christ believes in the present power of God to heal, deliver, and restore. Approach Him with expectation and reverence. Persevere in prayer, remain teachable, and give Him the glory. Ask a trustworthy pastor or mature believer to pray with you when you need help. Let this library become a doorway into deeper surrender, stronger faith, and enduring fellowship with Jesus.

Preparation for prayer

- Bring one clear need before God and ask Him to search your heart.
- Read a foundation passage and identify what it calls you to believe or obey.
- Prepare to surrender whatever Jesus brings into the light.

A complete prayer

Pray in faith, trusting Jesus Christ and the authority of His Word.

Father, I come before You through Jesus Christ with my heart open and my life in Your hands. You are holy, faithful, and mighty to save. I thank You for sending Your Son to die for my sins and rise from the grave. I turn my attention to Him and ask You to meet me with truth and power.

Jesus, take Your rightful place as Lord over every part of my life. Search my thoughts, desires, habits, and relationships. Bring into the light whatever I have concealed or defended. Give me courage to repent, strength to obey, and a heart that treasures Your presence above the passing pleasures of sin. I surrender my pride and every attempt to direct my life apart from You.

I renounce every known allegiance to darkness and every practice that opposes Your Word. I reject the lies that draw me away from Your lordship. By Your power, establish truth where deception has ruled, purity where sin has taken root, and hope where despair has weakened my heart. Let the work of the enemy be broken as I submit myself to You.

Holy Spirit, fill me and lead me through the Scriptures. Awaken faith, deepen repentance, and strengthen my love for Jesus. Teach me to pray with reverence and perseverance. Bring healing to wounded places and freedom where I need deliverance. Set my heart firmly upon Christ and make me ready to follow wherever He leads.

Father, establish me among Your people. Give me faithful fellowship, sound teaching, and boldness to bear witness to the Gospel. Let this time of prayer produce lasting obedience. I give You my present struggles, my future, and the hidden places of my heart. Be glorified in my life as I believe Your Word and walk in Your ways. In the mighty name of Jesus Christ. Amen.

A brief prayer

Lord Jesus, I come to You in faith and surrender. Search my heart, expose what needs to change, and strengthen me to obey Your Word. I renounce known sin and every allegiance to darkness. Fill me with the Holy Spirit and lead me into truth, healing, and freedom. Establish me in prayer, Scripture, and faithful fellowship. Let Your victory shape my life and Your name receive the glory. Amen.

Walk in freedom

- Choose one resource and read its foundation passages with an open Bible.
- Pray personally, naming the known needs and areas of surrender in your life.
- Act on what God’s Word makes clear: repent, forgive, renounce, or ask for prayer.
- Continue with the Start Here pathway or the discipleship plan, and connect with a faithful local church.
