Biblical foundation

John 14:1-11 - Jesus reveals the Father and identifies Himself as the way to Him. Christian allegiance rests in the particular Savior revealed in the Gospel, rather than an interchangeable religious identity.

Matthew 5:33-37 - Jesus confronts oath-making and calls His disciples to truthful speech. Every promise must be brought under His command and the integrity He requires.

2 Corinthians 6:14-18 - Paul contrasts allegiance to Christ with fellowship in unrighteousness and idols. God’s people are called to a holy belonging that governs the spiritual commitments they enter.

1 Corinthians 10:14-22 - Paul rejects participation in idolatrous worship alongside fellowship with Christ. We examine ritual participation by the worship and allegiance it involves.

Ephesians 5:6-14 - Believers are called to reject deceptive words and leave the works of darkness. Life in the Lord becomes visible in goodness, righteousness, and truth.

Colossians 2:6-15 - Paul directs believers away from deceptive spiritual teaching and toward fullness in Christ. His cross brings forgiveness and triumph over hostile powers.

Original teaching

Place your commitments under Jesus Christ

Jesus Christ is the Son who reveals the Father, died for our sins, and rose again. Come to Him in faith and give Him your undivided allegiance. His blood provides redemption and cleansing; His Word governs your conscience.

The United Grand Lodge of England’s public guidance requires belief in a Supreme Being and permits obligations on a member’s religious sacred text. It describes Masonry as neither a religion nor a substitute for one. Torch of Christ examines such commitments through Jesus’ unique lordship. As you leave Freemasonry, bring your own actual promises and participation before Him.

Renounce the obligations you actually made

Name known oaths, invocations, and loyalties that conflict with Christ. Renounce any promise to put an order above His Word, conceal wrongdoing, or participate in false worship. Speak from your own experience without reenacting ceremonies or borrowing another person’s account of initiation.

Ask forgiveness for the ungodly commitments you willingly made. Withdraw your allegiance to them and decide how you will end participation. Keep honesty, lawful responsibility, and appropriate privacy. Leaving an ungodly vow does not cancel legitimate financial, legal, or family duties.

Stand in redemption against curses and fear

Place fear about an oath under Christ's authority. Ask the Lord to break every curse connected with the commitments you actually made. His cross establishes your confidence. Refuse the claim that an ungodly promise must govern your conscience forever, and submit your life to the risen Lord.

You may also reject known occult family allegiances and associated curses while confessing only your own willing involvement. Renounce sinful relational loyalties you have maintained. Bring resentment before God and ask for grace to forgive with truthful boundaries. Let Christ's mercy shape both your freedom and your conduct.

Leave clearly and continue in the Spirit

Take a clear step out of membership and continuing rites. Request the relevant resignation process and communicate your decision truthfully. Return property that belongs to others and settle legitimate obligations. Honor the people you are leaving as neighbors whom Christ calls you to love.

Invite the Holy Spirit to fill your life and strengthen obedience. Join accountable believers in prayer, Scripture, worship, and service. Let your public confession and private conduct agree: Jesus Christ is Lord, and your loyalty belongs to Him.

Preparation for prayer

Prepare for deliverance

Begin with surrender to Jesus Christ, repentance, forgiveness, and a decisive break with ungodly allegiances. Use the preparation guide and personal renunciation prompts, then pray specifically about the matter before you.

Preparing for Deliverance in Jesus' Name

Personal Renunciation Guide: Beliefs, Practices & Allegiances

- Identify your actual membership and the commitments you know you made.
- Name what contradicts Scripture without repeating ceremonial words.
- Bring known family allegiances, sinful attachments, and a need to forgive before Christ.
- Decide the practical step by which you will leave continuing participation.

A complete prayer

Pray in faith, trusting Jesus Christ and the authority of His Word.

Father, I come to You through Jesus Christ, Your Son. I believe He died for my sins and rose again. I receive redemption and cleansing through His blood. Jesus, I submit my conscience, worship, promises, and future to Your lordship. Establish an undivided heart within me and lead me in the truth You have revealed.

I bring my actual Masonic involvement before You. I renounce every oath or obligation I personally made that joins me to worship, secrecy, or loyalty against Your Word. Forgive the ungodly commitments I willingly embraced. I withdraw my agreement with them and place my conscience under Jesus Christ. Give me courage to leave the participation that has sustained them.

Where I joined an invocation or ritual allegiance that contradicted the Gospel, I renounce that act. I reject every claim that an order or human leader may command my worship above Christ. Let Your truth expose the deception I accepted. Restore integrity in my speech and faithfulness in my conduct as I follow Jesus openly.

I reject known occult allegiances in my family and every curse connected with them. I repent of any willing participation of my own. I renounce sinful relational loyalties I have maintained and surrender those relationships to Jesus. Father, give me grace to forgive those who hurt or misled me. I place vengeance in Your hands and ask for mercy, wisdom, and strong boundaries.

In the name of Jesus Christ, I resist Satan and his works. Father, break every curse, hex, vex, spell, and incantation connected with the ungodly commitments I am leaving. Every evil spirit seeking to oppress me or hold me in false allegiance, I command you to depart in Jesus' name. The risen Lord is my Redeemer, and His authority is greater than darkness.

Holy Spirit, fill my life with Your presence and power. Strengthen me to communicate my decision truthfully, fulfill legitimate responsibilities, and walk in holy freedom. Establish faithful fellowship, love, and perseverance. Let my worship honor the Father revealed through His Son, and let my life bear witness to the mercy of Jesus Christ. In His mighty name, amen.

A brief prayer

Jesus Christ, I put my faith in Your saving death and resurrection. Cleanse me through Your blood. I renounce my own Masonic commitments that conflict with Your Word and surrender my allegiance to You. Break every curse connected with those ungodly vows. In Your name, I command evil spirits seeking to oppress me to depart. Holy Spirit, fill my life with truth and courage. Help me forgive, leave clearly, and follow Jesus faithfully. Amen.

Walk in freedom

- Communicate your decision to leave through the relevant membership process.
- Remove materials you retain for continuing rituals while returning others' property responsibly.
- Pray with an accountable Christian who will help you walk in Scripture and freedom.
- Replace former meetings and rites with Christian worship, fellowship, prayer, and service.
