Biblical foundation

Acts 19:18-20 - Believers confessed their practices and surrendered their books of magic. Their costly break with the past accompanied the powerful spread of God's Word.

Romans 13:11-14 - Paul calls believers to leave darkness, live openly before God, and stop providing opportunities for sinful desire. Faith takes practical form in changed conduct.

Philippians 4:8-9 - Attention to truth, purity, and what honors God is joined to practicing apostolic teaching. The life of peace includes renewed thinking and faithful action.

1 John 1:5-10 - God calls His people to walk in the light, confess their sins, and receive cleansing by the blood of Jesus. Truthful fellowship with Him includes changed conduct.

Ephesians 6:10-18 - Believers stand against the devil through the Lord's strength, His armor, His Word, and persevering prayer. Spiritual vigilance belongs to everyday discipleship.

Original teaching

Close the way back to former practices

Repentance changes the way you live. When you turn from occult involvement, bring your appointments, subscriptions, conversations, possessions, and private habits under the lordship of Jesus Christ. End the practices you have renounced. Remove the means by which you kept returning to them, and give your obedience a clear, practical shape.

The believers in Ephesus gave up valuable books connected to their magic. Address the materials and access you actually used: spellbooks, divination decks, ritual tools, occult apps, paid consultations, recordings, online groups, and membership commitments. Renounce the use and end the arrangement. The focus is known occult practice; ordinary objects are not automatically sources of bondage.

Consecrate your home and habits

Handle your own materials responsibly and respect the belongings of others. Pray over the places where you live and work, asking the Father to establish His peace and truth. Renounce the occult activities you practiced there. In Jesus' name, resist every demonic influence seeking to sustain those activities or draw you back to them.

Consecration is a life offered to God. Let truthful speech replace deception, worship replace occult seeking, and generosity replace the desire for control. Choose what you read, watch, and pursue with a heart ready to obey. Make room for the Word of God to instruct your decisions and for the Holy Spirit to strengthen your character.

Fill your days with the life of Christ

Build a daily life of Scripture, prayer, work, worship, and service. Seek the wisdom of God when a decision is difficult. Learn to wait on Him when the future is uncertain. The temptation to seek predictions or hidden power is answered by trust in the Lord and obedience to what He has made clear.

Stand with believers who love Scripture and pray with faith. Ask them to help you recognize returning habits and keep your commitment to Christ. Speak clearly and respectfully with people who expect you to continue former practices. Your allegiance has changed. Let the strength of that decision be seen in steady devotion and a life increasingly shaped by the Gospel.

Preparation for prayer

Prepare for deliverance

Begin with surrender to Jesus Christ, repentance, forgiveness, and a decisive break with ungodly allegiances. Use the preparation guide and personal renunciation prompts, then pray specifically about the matter before you.

Preparing for Deliverance in Jesus' Name

Personal Renunciation Guide: Beliefs, Practices & Allegiances

• List your own materials actually used for occult practice: books, divination tools, ritual objects, apps, subscriptions, or recordings.

• Identify appointments, groups, payments, and promises that continue your participation.

• Bring before God any known family occult agreement you adopted, sinful loyalty you maintained, or resentment you need to release.

• Decide how to end each practice and remove your own access responsibly; use the Personal Renunciation Guide.

A complete prayer

Pray in faith, trusting Jesus Christ and the authority of His Word.

Lord Jesus Christ, You died for my sins and rose to give new life. I belong to You and surrender my daily life to Your lordship. Father, forgive my willing participation in darkness and every divided place I kept protected. Cleanse my heart by the blood of Jesus and strengthen me to act on the repentance I bring before You.

I renounce the occult practices I knowingly maintained through books, divination tools, ritual objects, apps, subscriptions, and recordings. I reject the use I made of these things for prediction, spirit contact, protection, control, or hidden power. I surrender the specific materials I name before You now and commit to remove my own access responsibly.

I withdraw from consultations, ceremonies, online communities, and groups that keep me participating in those practices. I reject promises that require continued occult involvement. Help me end the appointments, payments, messages, and private routines that supply a way back. Where I used my home or possessions for rituals, I renounce those activities and consecrate that part of my daily life to You.

I reject every known occult allegiance in my family and every curse connected with it. Where I personally accepted or continued those practices, I repent and renounce my participation. I reject unholy ties and sinful loyalties that keep me joined to former practices. I choose to forgive people who deceived, pressured, or harmed me, and I entrust them to Your justice and mercy. Strengthen me to speak with courage and act with integrity.

In the name of Jesus Christ, every demonic power working through the practices and agreements I have renounced: I command you to leave me. I reject deception, intimidation, and the invitation to return. I withdraw every sinful consent I knowingly gave to those works. Jesus Christ is Lord over my life, and I stand submitted to Him.

Holy Spirit, fill my home and daily conduct with the life of Christ. Establish truth in my thoughts, purity in my habits, and faithfulness in my decisions. Teach me to seek the wisdom of God through Scripture and prayer. Build faithful fellowship around me. Help me replace occult seeking with worship, service, honest work, and obedience. Let every part of my life honor Jesus Christ. In His mighty name, amen.

A brief prayer

Jesus Christ, You died and rose for me, and I belong to You. Forgive my willing sin. I renounce my actual occult practices, the materials I used, and the groups and arrangements that sustained them. I forgive those who harmed me and reject known family occult allegiances and curses, and renounce sinful ties I accepted. In Your name, I command powers working through those practices to leave. Holy Spirit, fill my daily life with truth and obedience. Amen.

Walk in freedom

- End continuing occult appointments, subscriptions, rituals, and consultations.
- Remove your own practice materials responsibly and honor others' property.
- Set aside daily time for Scripture and prayer, and join believers for worship.
- Ask a mature Christian to pray with you and review the practical changes you are making.
