Biblical foundation

Ephesians 6:10-20 - Paul calls the church to stand through God's strength and spiritual armor. Truth, righteousness, faith, salvation, the Gospel, Scripture, and persistent prayer equip believers for resistance and bold witness.

James 4:1-10 - Humility, repentance, and submission to God belong with resistance to the devil. James confronts divided allegiance and selfish conflict as he calls people back to the Lord.

1 Peter 5:6-11 - Believers resist the devil through steadfast faith while remembering others who suffer. The God of grace strengthens and establishes His people as they endure.

Colossians 2:6-15 - God gives life and forgiveness through Christ, whose cross reveals His triumph over hostile spiritual powers. Our confidence is grounded in His victory and our life in Him.

1 John 1:5-2:2 - John calls believers to truthful fellowship, confession, and cleansing through Jesus' blood. Forgiveness and Christ's advocacy strengthen a life that turns from sin and seeks His help.

Matthew 6:9-15 - Jesus joins prayer for the Father's kingdom with forgiveness, daily dependence, protection from temptation, and deliverance from evil. Forgiving others belongs within the life of those seeking God's mercy.

Original teaching

Prepare in allegiance to the risen Lord

Jesus Christ died for sinners, rose from the grave, and triumphed over hostile spiritual powers. Come through His grace and surrender yourself to God. Christ Himself sets people free. These words guide sincere prayer; the power rests in the Savior you trust, not in completing a sequence.

Bring known sin into the light and choose repentance. Forgive those who wronged you, release vengeance, and retain wise boundaries and truthful accountability. Reject every known occult allegiance in your family and every connected curse, then repent of your own willing participation. Renounce sinful relational loyalty. Another person's actions do not make them your owner or make their sin yours to confess. Resources 34 and 35 offer fuller guidance.

Resist with the armor God supplies

Stand against demonic oppression in Jesus' name, command unclean spirits to cease and depart, and ask the Holy Spirit to fill you. Let resistance be specific: reject deception with truth, accusation with the Gospel, temptation with obedience, and intimidation with faith in Christ. Speak from Scripture rather than guessing at unseen causes or naming supposed human perpetrators.

Put the armor into practice. Live truthfully, pursue righteousness, remain ready with the Gospel of peace, trust God's promises, remember the salvation given in Christ, and handle Scripture with understanding. Persevere in prayer for other believers and bold Gospel witness. Mature Christians can stand beside you in prayer, help test your understanding, and encourage obedience. Let freedom bear fruit in worship, holiness, love, and service.

Preparation for prayer

Prepare for deliverance

Preparing for Deliverance in Jesus’ Name

Personal Renunciation Guide: Beliefs, Practices & Allegiances

• Read Colossians 2:6-15 and begin with Christ's victory and grace; surrender your allegiance to Him.

• Name actual sin to confess and anyone you need to forgive. Release vengeance without promising renewed trust or access.

• Name known ancestral occult allegiance and connected curses you are rejecting. Distinguish your own willing participation and any sinful relational loyalty from another person's actions; do not invent hidden agreements.

• Name the specific opposition you are resisting and the corresponding truth or obedience in Ephesians 6. Use resources 34 and 35 for fuller preparation.

A complete prayer

Pray in faith, trusting Jesus Christ and the authority of His Word.

Father, I come through Jesus Christ, who died for my sins, rose from the dead, and triumphed over the powers of darkness. I receive Your grace by faith and surrender my life to You. I belong to God. Cleanse me through His shed blood, by which I receive redemption and forgiveness. Establish me in the victory of Your Son and strengthen me through the Holy Spirit.

I confess the sin I actually know I have chosen and turn from it. Forgive my disobedience, deception, and willing compromise wherever they are present. I yield those choices to Jesus and ask You to cleanse my conscience. Help me put away the practice that contradicts my confession and walk openly before You.

Father, I bring You those who have wronged me. Help me forgive sincerely, release vengeance, and renounce bitterness. I entrust judgment to You while asking for wisdom concerning boundaries and truthful accountability. Let resentment cease to direct my response, and make love and righteousness strong within me.

I reject every known occult allegiance in my family and every curse connected with it. Where I have willingly participated, I repent and renounce my involvement. Where a sinful attachment or controlling loyalty has drawn me from obedience, I surrender it to Jesus. Break its hold and establish Your rule. My belonging is to Christ alone.

In the name of Jesus Christ, I resist Satan's deception, accusation, temptation, and intimidation. I command every unclean spirit seeking to oppress me and oppose my obedience to Christ: cease your work and depart in His name. I reject your claims and stand under the authority of the risen Lord. Father, deliver me from evil and uphold me in Your power.

Holy Spirit, fill me afresh. Establish truth in my speech and understanding, righteousness in my conduct, and readiness to proclaim the Gospel of peace. Strengthen faith against the enemy's lies, fix my hope upon salvation in Christ, and teach me to use Scripture faithfully. Give me perseverance in prayer for Your people and boldness in Gospel witness.

Unite me with faithful believers who will pray and speak truth with love. Keep me humble, discerning, and ready to obey. Let Your freeing work produce worship, purity, courage, and generous service. I entrust the struggle and the outcome to You, the God who saves and delivers. Be glorified through Jesus Christ in my life. In His victorious name, amen.

A brief prayer

Father, through Jesus' death and resurrection I receive Your grace and belong to You. I repent of known sin, forgive those who wronged me, and reject known family occult allegiances and connected curses. I renounce my own participation and sinful attachment. In Jesus' name I resist Satan and command oppressive unclean spirits to depart. Holy Spirit, establish truth, righteousness, faith, and courage in me. Strengthen me for persevering prayer, obedience, and bold Gospel witness. You alone set me free. Amen.
