Biblical foundation

John 14:1-11 - Jesus identifies Himself as the way to the Father and reveals His unity with the Father. Christian faith rests in the Son’s unique person and saving relationship with Him.

1 Corinthians 15:1-11 - Paul reminds the church of the Gospel it received: Christ died for sins, was buried, rose again, and appeared to witnesses. Faith is grounded in this apostolic proclamation.

1 John 2:18-25 - John confronts denial of the Son and calls believers to remain in the truth they received. Acknowledging Jesus Christ belongs inseparably with knowing the Father.

Galatians 1:6-12 - Paul rejects a distorted gospel even when a human teacher or claimed angelic message promotes it. Religious authority is tested by the Gospel of Christ.

Acts 17:22-31 - Paul addresses Athenian worship by proclaiming the Creator, calling people to repentance, and announcing judgment through the risen Christ. All peoples share their life and accountability before God.

1 Thessalonians 1:5-10 - The Thessalonian believers received the Gospel through the Spirit’s power and turned from idols to serve God while awaiting His risen Son. Conversion establishes a new worship and direction.

Original teaching

Receive the Son and His Gospel

Jesus Christ, the eternal Son of God, became truly human, died for our sins, and rose bodily from the dead. Receive salvation through faith in Him. Examine your beliefs by Scripture, repent of false worship, and surrender to His lordship. Ask the Holy Spirit for new life and truth.

Love people of every religion and ethnicity. Examine their teaching without contempt, and respond to Christ with courage and compassion.

Examine Islamic claims about Jesus

If you embraced the Quran’s rejection of Jesus’ divine Sonship or its denial of His crucifixion, bring those convictions before the New Testament’s witness. Renounce the beliefs that contradict the Son and His saving cross. Receive the apostolic Gospel of His death and resurrection.

His Sonship is His eternal relationship with the Father. Reject authority that contradicts this Gospel. A Muslim background or family name does not establish what you personally believed; respond honestly to the convictions you actually held.

Turn from religious ancestor worship

Within a Confucian setting, distinguish ethical teaching about family respect from religious worship of ancestors. If you offered prayers, worship, or spiritual dependence to ancestors, renounce that practice and turn to the living God. Honor relatives with love and remember the dead with gratitude while giving your worship to God alone.

Reject known ungodly ancestral allegiances and associated curses, confessing only your own willing participation. Let obedience to Jesus establish a different legacy.

Leave rival worship and spiritual paths

Where Hindu or Buddhist devotion formed part of your religious life, name the worship, offerings, vows, or spiritual refuge you actually embraced. Turn from reliance on deities or a path of salvation apart from Christ. Give your worship and hope to the risen Lord.

If New Age beliefs shaped your life, renounce the self-divinity, spirit-guide allegiance, or spiritual power you sought. Receive God’s revelation of Himself through Jesus and learn to live by Scripture.

Renounce Satanic belief and follow Christ

The Church of Satan describes itself as atheistic and uses Satan symbolically. Someone leaving it should address the self-rule, rejection of God, and ritual commitments actually embraced. Someone who practiced literal Satan worship can renounce that worship directly. Speak truthfully about your own history.

Ask for cleansing through Jesus’ blood and grace to forgive those who hurt you. Renounce sinful relational allegiances and invite the Holy Spirit’s filling. Join faithful believers in worship, baptism, Scripture, and service as you follow Jesus openly.

Preparation for prayer

Prepare for deliverance

Begin with surrender to Jesus Christ, repentance, forgiveness, and a decisive break with ungodly allegiances. Use the preparation guide and personal renunciation prompts, then pray specifically about the matter before you.

Preparing for Deliverance in Jesus’ Name

Personal Renunciation Guide: Beliefs, Practices & Allegiances

- Name the religious convictions and worship you actually embraced.
- Read the Gospel passages above and identify what you now confess about Jesus.
- Bring known family allegiances, sinful attachments, and a need to forgive before God.
- Choose a practical change that expresses your allegiance to Christ.

A complete prayer

Pray in faith, trusting Jesus Christ and the authority of His Word.

Father, I come to You through Jesus Christ, Your eternal Son. I believe He came in the flesh, died for our sins, and rose bodily from the grave. I turn toward You and receive the mercy You give through Him. Jesus, I confess You as Lord and surrender my worship, conscience, and future to Your authority.

I bring before You the religious beliefs and practices I am leaving. Forgive the false worship and rebellion I willingly embraced. I renounce every denial of Your Son and His saving cross. I reject every teaching I accepted that placed another savior, spiritual authority, or way of salvation above the Gospel. Establish the truth of Jesus Christ within me.

I turn from the idols, religious rites, and spiritual allegiances I personally embraced. I withdraw my worship and dependence from them. Where I sought divinity in myself, followed spirit guides, or embraced Satanic belief or worship, I renounce that involvement. You alone are God, and I yield my life to You. Let my confession become faithful obedience.

Father, cleanse me through the blood of Jesus. Renew my conscience and strengthen my faith. Give me grace to forgive those who hurt or misled me. I place vengeance in Your hands and ask You to lead me in mercy, truthful love, and wise boundaries. Let the forgiveness I receive shape the way I treat others.

I reject known occult and ungodly religious allegiances in my family and every curse connected with them. I repent of any willing participation of my own. I renounce sinful relational loyalties I have maintained and surrender those relationships to Jesus. Establish a new direction of worship and holiness in my life.

In the name of Jesus Christ, I resist Satan and reject his works. Father, break every curse, hex, vex, spell, and incantation connected with the false worship I am leaving. Every evil spirit seeking to oppress me or draw me back into deception, I command you to depart in Jesus’ name. My allegiance belongs to the risen Lord.

Holy Spirit, fill me with Your presence and power. Teach me Scripture, establish holy love, and strengthen courageous witness. Join me to faithful believers and lead me in worship, baptism, and service. Let my life declare the mercy and truth of Jesus Christ. In His mighty name, amen.

A brief prayer

Jesus Christ, I believe You are the eternal Son who died for my sins and rose again. I turn from the false beliefs and worship I embraced and receive cleansing through Your blood. My allegiance belongs to You. Break the power of darkness and establish Your truth within me. Holy Spirit, fill my life with faith, love, and courage. Help me forgive, leave sinful loyalties, and follow Jesus openly with His people. Amen.

Walk in freedom

- Read John’s Gospel and write what it teaches about Jesus, the Father, and salvation.
- End participation in the worship or religious commitment you are leaving.
- Meet with an accountable Christian to discuss faith, baptism, and continuing discipleship.
- Speak truthfully and lovingly with relatives while keeping your allegiance to Christ clear.
