Biblical foundation

Genesis 2:18-25 - God established companionship and the marriage union as good gifts. Faithful love and covenant commitment belong within His design.

1 Corinthians 6:12-20 - Paul teaches the seriousness of sexual union and the believer's belonging to Christ. He calls for a decisive departure from sexual immorality and the honoring of God with the body.

2 Corinthians 6:14-18 - Paul confronts partnerships that compromise loyalty to God and agreement with idolatry. The people of God are called to undivided devotion to Him.

Ephesians 4:20-32 - The new life in Christ involves renewed thinking, truthful speech, changed conduct, and forgiveness. Spiritual freedom is expressed in faithful relationships.

James 4:6-10 - Humility before God, repentance, and resistance to the devil form one response of wholehearted surrender. Drawing near to God strengthens the believer's stand.

1 John 1:7-9 - John connects walking in God's light with cleansing by the blood of Jesus and honest confession of sin. Confidence rests in God's faithfulness and Christ's saving work.

Original teaching

Bring every relationship under Christ

Jesus Christ calls for first place in your heart. Your body, affections, loyalties, and decisions belong under His lordship. A relationship becomes spiritually destructive when it continually draws you into sin, demands allegiance above Christ, or holds you through manipulation and fear. Bring that attachment before the Lord and surrender it fully.

Ungodly soul ties is ministry language for sinful attachments and loyalties that bind a person's choices to disobedience. Its biblical foundation includes the seriousness of sexual union, rejection of idolatrous allegiance, and the call to renewed conduct. Faithful affection, friendship, marriage, and family responsibility are gifts to honor as we bring destructive attachments under Christ.

Renounce sinful allegiance and receive freedom

Name what needs to end: sexual sin, secret dependency, manipulative demands, a promise to obey someone against God's Word, or a vow that you will preserve a relationship even through wrongdoing. Confess your willing choices, withdraw your consent to the sin, and renounce the loyalty sustaining it. Give your allegiance to Jesus and ask Him to deliver you from every spiritual oppression exploiting that bondage.

If you were abused, assaulted, or coerced, the sin committed against you belongs to the person who harmed you. Bring the wounds to Jesus and ask for healing, protection, and restoration. Christ's love restores dignity. You can forgive while maintaining boundaries that protect your life and honor the truth.

Walk in holy, truthful love

Pray firmly against the powers of darkness that exploit sinful attachments. In Jesus' name, reject their influence and command them to leave. Then act on your surrender. End sinful contact, bring secrecy into the light, and establish the boundaries that obedience requires. Let the Holy Spirit strengthen purity, courage, and sound judgment.

God also calls you to cherish faithful love, honor marriage, care for children, and fulfill legitimate responsibilities. Seek wise pastoral support where those duties make a situation complicated. Grow among believers who will pray with you and help you stand. The goal is a heart free to love God first and to love others with holiness and truth.

Preparation for prayer

Prepare for deliverance

Begin with surrender to Jesus Christ, repentance, forgiveness, and a decisive break with ungodly allegiances. Use the preparation guide and personal renunciation prompts, then pray specifically about the matter before you.

Preparing for Deliverance in Jesus’ Name

Personal Renunciation Guide: Beliefs, Practices & Allegiances

• Privately identify the relationship and actual conduct drawing you into sexual sin, secrecy, manipulation, or dependency.

• Name any promise you willingly made to preserve that attachment through wrongdoing.

• Bring your own sin to confession, people to forgiveness, and known family occult agreements you personally accepted to renunciation.

• Use the preparation guides, then choose a concrete boundary that supports obedience and honors legitimate duties.

A complete prayer

Pray in faith, trusting Jesus Christ and the authority of His Word.

Lord Jesus Christ, You gave Your life for sinners and rose from the grave. I place my trust in Your saving work. I belong to You, and I surrender my body, affections, relationships, and future to Your lordship. Father, forgive my willing sin, cleanse me by the blood of Jesus, and bring every divided loyalty into Your light.

I name before You the ungodly attachments in which I knowingly cooperated. I renounce sexual sin, secrecy, manipulative dependence, and every promise that required me to preserve a relationship through wrongdoing. I reject the agreement that another person's approval must govern my obedience to You. I withdraw my consent to those sins and surrender the loyalties that sustained them.

I renounce vows of sinful obedience, promises to hide wrongdoing, and demands that I must belong to another person more than I belong to Christ. Where I sought occult power to bind a relationship or accepted spiritual manipulation to keep it, I renounce those practices. Let the truth of Jesus govern my love, my decisions, and the boundaries I establish.

I reject every known occult allegiance in my family and every curse connected with it. Where I personally accepted or continued those practices, I repent and renounce my participation. I reject their influence and the unholy loyalties connected to them. I choose to forgive those who deceived, exploited, abandoned, or harmed me. I entrust them to Your justice and mercy. Where harm was done against me, restore my dignity and help me place responsibility where it belongs.

In the name of Jesus Christ, every demonic power exploiting the sinful attachments and agreements I have renounced: I command you to leave me. I reject your control, accusation, and demand to return to disobedience. My life belongs to the crucified and risen Lord, and I stand submitted to His authority.

Holy Spirit, fill me with purity, courage, and sound judgment. Strengthen me to end sinful contact, speak truth, and honor legitimate responsibilities. Heal wounded places and teach me faithful love. Give me strength to remain obedient when old desires seek to renew those sinful agreements. Establish friendships and fellowship that help me follow Jesus wholeheartedly. Let every relationship come under His lordship, with a heart free to love God first. In His mighty name, amen.

A brief prayer

Jesus Christ, crucified and risen, I belong to You. Forgive my willing sin. I renounce the sexual sin, secrecy, dependency, and ungodly promises I actually chose. I forgive those who harmed me and reject known family occult allegiances and curses, and renounce unholy loyalties I accepted. In Your name, I command powers exploiting those attachments to leave. Holy Spirit, fill me with purity and courage to obey, honor real duties, and love faithfully. Amen.
